An old Prayer from Ivor Bailey Speaking Hello Lord! I keep thinking about my mother tonight. I think of her in her quiet little house. The family has left. We have all gone away, and she is alone. I recall the times when we were young - the good times we had, and things we did which make me ashamed when I think of them. I cannot forget - nor do I want to - how she cared for the family, even when we weren't worth caring about. She taught us the meaning of love, and yet she never talked about it. Thank You for my mother, Lord. I pray for her tonight. God bless her! Bless her with your love.
