Women's International Day; Friday 8 March. Women of the Land.

In gratitude, O god, we give thanks to you for the work and ministry of country women. In every culture and generation They have brought gifts of reconciliation and harmony between people and land. They strengthen the life of the community by being present at the beginning and end of life. They help create home life with their husbands and partners, and often under trying conditions. They bring their unique insight and gifts into the strongly male-dominated preserve of farming, O God, continue to bless all they do, as they develop new ministries and roles. Bill Bennett.
